PRAYER OF THE DAY God of forgiveness, David betrayed your commandments and committed terrible crimes. Yet even his horrific sins were not too much for you to forgive. Reminds us of the value of confessing our sins to you, and how you hear and forgives. Amen. Narrative Lectionary Programs 1 22-23 Worship resources Copyright © 2022 Clergy Stuff, amended by Pastor Mary Eide

GROWING

David, son of Jesse, born of Bethlehem, becomes king of Israel. God has chosen David over the former king, Saul, because David has a true heart for God. God has blessed all that King David does, and he has everything a man could need or desire...or, so it would seem. Choosing not to go out on the battlefield with his army, the King walks outside on his home's room. Listen to how this man whom God has chosen, and who truly loves God, sins greatly. His sin, like our own sin, has a ripple effect of impacting the lives of many people. A reading from the 2nd Book of the Prophet Samuel, from chapters 11 and 12.

<sup>1</sup> In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel with him; they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> It happened, late one afternoon, when David rose from his couch and was walking about on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; the woman was very beautiful. <sup>3</sup> David sent someone to inquire about the woman. It was reported, "This is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite." <sup>4</sup> So David sent messengers to get her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself after her period.) Then she returned to her house. <sup>5</sup> The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, "I am pregnant."

NOTE: King David tried various plans to prevent anyone from knowing of his sinful deeds. In a last ditch effort to do so, he conspires with the leader of his army to leave Bathsheba's husband, Uriah, in a position on the battlefield where he will certainly be killed.

<sup>26</sup> When the wife of Uriah heard that her husband was dead, she made lamentation for him. <sup>27</sup> When the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. <sup>12: 1</sup> But the thing that David had done displeased the Lord. And the Lord sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, "There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor. <sup>2</sup> The rich man had very many flocks and herds; <sup>3</sup> but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. He brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children; it used to eat of his meager fare, and drink from his cup, and lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him. <sup>4</sup> Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was loath to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb, and prepared that for the guest who had come to him." <sup>5</sup> Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. He said to Nathan, "As the Lord lives, the man who has done this deserves to die; <sup>6</sup> he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity." <sup>7</sup> Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you from the hand of Saul; <sup>8</sup> I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added as much more. <sup>9</sup> Why have you despised the word of the Lord, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

REFLECTION Psalm 51 King David's plea for divine forgiveness (Please respond with bold text)

<sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love;

according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.

<sup>2</sup> Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

<sup>3</sup> For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. <sup>4</sup> Against you, you alone, have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are justified in your sentence and blameless when you pass judgement.

5 Indeed, I was born guilty, a sinner when my mother conceived me.

6 You desire truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have crushed rejoice.

9 Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Narrative Lectionary Programs 1 22-23 Worship

* CLOSING LITANY

We have all that we need. Still we want what others have.

Worse, we want them to lose it, So that we can have it instead,

Which is the very definition of "covet." Return our attention to what is ours.

Give us a heart of gratitude, O God, That we might seek the well-being of our neighbors,

And share out of our abundance, So all might be satisfied

Now go in peace. Love your neighbor. Thanks be to God.
