GATHERING

*#252 Green GATHERING HYMN You Servants of God page 5

* GREETING The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. All: And also with you.

* CONFESSION We confess our sins before God and one another. We pause for silence and reflection. Gracious God, We have sinned against you and our neighbors. We have taken what is not ours, and justified our actions. We have turned away from your wisdom. We have not done justice, loved kindness, nor walked humbly with you. Forgive us for the harms we have caused through word and action, and restore us to the joy of following your will for us.

* FORGIVENESS God knows our every weakness and yet loves us without ceasing. Rejoice and be glad, for the God of grace and mercy forgives you all your sins, for the sake of our savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

* The Lord be with you. And also with you.

* PRAYER OF THE DAY Loving God, Naaman's pride almost prevented him from receiving the gift of your healing. Give us the humility to come to you for help in all things, that we might receive wholeness in you. Amen. Narrative Lectionary Programs 1 22-23 Worship resources Copyright © 2022 Clergy Stuff

Cameron B. R. Howard, an Associate Professor of the Old Testament at Luther Seminary describes the prophet Elisha in a recent commentary: <https://www.workingpreacher.org/authors/cameron-howard>

There are some prophets whose names serve as titles of biblical books, like Micah and Isaiah, who were known for sharing oracles or prophetic messages from God to the people of Israel. However, the prophet Elisha's work focuses more on performing miracles rather than delivering oracles. In a nutshell, we might say that Elisha's prophetic vocation is less about talking and more about doing. Let's learn about one of these miracles, where through Elisha, God healed a man from leprosy. Naaman, we will learn, is a man of great standing, from a different country, one that worshiped other gods. A reading from 2nd Kings, chapter 5, beginning at the first verse.

¹ Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. ² Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. ³ She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." ⁴ So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. ⁵ And the king of Aram said, "Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel." He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. ⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy." ⁷ When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me." ⁸ But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. ¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." ¹¹ But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! ¹² Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. ¹³ But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean?'" ¹⁴ So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. ¹⁵ Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel.

The word of the Lord. ALL: Thanks be to God.

GIVING

*THE APOSTLES' CREED (professed together)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell.* On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

Or, He descended to the dead.*

STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY 11/13. November is often known as a month when we take time to be thankful and grateful for all God has given us in life. It is also a time of year when we as individuals or family units, prayerfully consider ways we intend to support and be active in the life of the church in the coming year. We will take time in worship to give thanks for the Intent Card as well as the Time and Talent Sheets turned in...and those yet to come.

LOVE LIGHTS forms are now available to remember/honor those you love. Half of $10 donation goes to support BOTH God's ministry here at Shepherd of the Hill AND the Christmas for Kids program to support local families for Christmas.

Losing a loved one is hard, and the upcoming holidays can be difficult. GriefShare is a friendly, caring group of people who will walk alongside you through one of life's most difficult experiences. You don't have to go through the grieving process alone during the holidays.

November 20, 2022 from 5:30-7:30 at Trinity United Methodist Church (105 S. Holly Ave., Elk Mound) for the program Surviving the Holidays. If you are not able to attend in person you may join us via Zoom. Please contact Denise at the church office (715-879-5596) for a reservation and the book.

JOIN US Wed., Nov. 30th for 6pm Soup Supper, 7pm Blue Christmas worship, followed by Love Lights lighting.
